

(we bow our heads)

God, fill us up

trim our wicks

scrub all the soot

from the glass chimney

as Spirit lights the flame.

when I feel drained

burned out

flickering

I'm startled to notice

I still glow on.

I forget the Temple miracle

I assume I only have one night's oil until I burn for eight more days.